Description:

About the Author In his day job, John Connell is Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer with BankFinancial in Chicago, a 100% Microsoft tools and operating system business. John and his team develop applications with Visual Basic .NET, Microsoft Visual C++ .NET, Microsoft BackOffice, MTS, MSMQ, Microsoft Site Server Commerce Edition, Microsoft Internet Explorer, and Microsoft SQL Server. He has an MBA and a Master's Degree in Computer Science. John also currently teaches evening and weekend graduate-level programming classes at DePaul University.

His five years of teaching led him to see a large opportunity for a new category of Visual Basic book, which he has presented to us.
