Description:

About the Author

Animal communicator Joan Ranquet has used telepathic communication in an innovative way for pet guardians, breeders, trainers, and animal health-care practitioners to get new information that leads to understanding an animal's problems and needs. Joan has acted as a translator for healing human/animal relations, solving behavior problems, isolating the pain or discomfort of illnesses, easing the various stages of crossing over, and finding lost animals. She also uses energy work and/or body work to alleviate pain. She teaches beginning and advanced animal communication and energy work for animals.

This is Joan's first book.
