Description:

Review --"The book isn't a typical cookie-cutter love triangle. As far as romances go, I give this book an A+ and then some." Missy's Reads & Reviews.

--"I have never been a big fan of love triangles, but, Liz Reinhardt, dear readers, is brilliant. Rarely do you get to see the character's feelings develop slowly over the course of the book, but that happens here." Letters Inside Out.

--"Double Clutch is a realistic contemporary romance that held my attention from page one right to the very end. Each of the characters is well-developed. They are flawed, practical and believable and you get a glimpse into the fascinating secondary characters as well." Obsession with Books. Based in Sydney, Australia.

--"Never have I been sucked into the head of a main character and wasn't able to choose between the two men during a love triangle." Shana - SizzlingReads.

--"Double Clutch was brilliantly written, well-edited and had a great storyline that captivated me the whole way through." Readaraptor. Preston, England.

--"A light-hearted and easy read with all the great elements of teen chick lit! Hot boys, raging hormones, quirky best friends, and a main character who just isn't sure how to handle it all, set against a high school backdrop." Fuzzy. Coffee. Books.
