Description:

Review "A good storyteller - and R. B. Chesterton is quite a good storyteller - knows to lower her voice when she's talking about ghosts...[a] spellbinding tale, offering eloquent evidence that Southern storytelling is indeed a very special art form." (The New York Times Book Review)

A sharp and edgy gothic thriller.

" (Publishers Weekly)

As the questions hover and grow more intense, it's virtually impossible not to pursue the answers to the end. In fact, as [Chesterton's] novel gains momentum like a fast-moving train, it's hard to put the book down at all. Not for nothing is she one of our most decorated writers.

" (Alabama Writers Forum)

"Who doesn't love a spin-tingling ghost story? Even better, a ghost story so grounded in reality that it keeps you awake reading and sticks with you even in the daylight hours. Another winner from the author of more than 21 books in various genres." (Delta Magazine)

An unsettling piece of American gothic... It's Haines' knack for good, old-fashioned storytelling that truly sets The Darkling apart.

" (Bloody-disgusting.com)

With The Darkling, [Chesterton] firmly reestablishes herself as a queen of darkness and suspense.

" (Southern Literary Review)
